

PFOS material declaration certificate

HMS Industrial Networks hereby states that its products do not contain any Perfluorooctane sulphonate (hereafter referred to as PFOS) or PFOS related substances* as defined in the European Union directive 2006/122/EC in any amounts higher than limits stated in the directive.

None of the chemical substances used during manufacturing of HMS Industrial Networks Products contains PFOS or PFOS related substances.

This statement is based on information and data provided from 3rd parties and may not have been verified through destructive testing methods or other chemical analysis. Great Britain's list of the 96 PFOS-related compounds identified when preparing the Risk Reduction Strategy for PFOS (RPA & BRE, 2004) has been used to verify the declaration of contents.
